MONDAY, AUGUST 6, 1866.

IN THE admission of Tennessee the Republican majorities in the two Houses of Congress have practically refuted the allegation that they are unfriendly to a full and complete restoration of all the States to their normal relations in the Union. What they have done in that case they are ready and anxious to do for the other ten revolted States. Nor can it be maintained with any show of fairness that the conditions they exact are harsh and unreasonable. The utmost they require is a constitutional provision making leaders in the rebellion ineligible to places of honor and trust under the government they attempted to destroy. This is vastly less than President JOHNSON required upon his elevation to the Presidency. Then he denounced bloody execution on the rebel chiefs with a vehemence that appalled even the stoutest radical. "Treason was the highest crime known to the laws, and ought to be punished as such." He instituted no exceptions, and showed no disposition to accept of any. We are somewhat inclined to radicalism ourselves, but there was a savagery in the words of the President that absolutely thrilled us with horror.

If the President had fallen in with the mild measures of Congress, the session would have closed upon a Union completely restored. But when he rushed from the extreme of revenge he went to extreme of magnanimity. He accepted the explication that no pains and penalties had been incurred, and denounced those who dissented from that view as traitors and disunionists. By his own acts he has postponed restoration, in the hope of securing it without conditions upon the rebels and upon terms that shall compel ninety-nine out of every hundred loyalists in the nation to "take back seats."

THE SENATE, by the Constitution, is part and parcel of the appointing power. Within the last few months the President has nominated many persons to important public places, which nominations the Senate has refused to ratify. Since the adjournment of Congress the opinion of the new Attorney General has been demanded on the right of the President to appoint these same men during the vacation of the Senate. He has decided the right of the President to be full and complete touching this matter, and the work of removing all the old office-holders who fail to follow the President in the betrayal of the party that elected him, has been commenced, and will be prosecuted with unsparing energy. All the new appointees are expected not only to endorse the President's Policy, but to aid in giving it effect by laboring to elect members of Congress and State Legislatures who will be facile instruments in the hands of the Administration.

THERE is no certainty in predicting what is in the womb of the future. It may be the nation has not yet been sufficiently scourged for its offences. When Providence so orders that such men as President JOHNSON bear rule, there are reasons to apprehend that his purposes are of wrath rather than mercy. Or, it may be that the object is to try the hearts of the people, to see if they will really stand fast for justice and liberty to all men. Under this latter aspect of the case, we are confident the loyal masses will not be found wanting, and that when the time arrives for them in a public and authoritative manner to express their feelings and purposes, they will show that tried in the fire of the rebellion they have come out with no smell upon their garments.

SOME months ago, President Johnson, animated by that rough energy which is his predominant characteristic, appointed a Provisional Governor for North Carolina; had that Governor convoke a Constitutional Convention; dictated in what particulars the Constitution should be amended; and carried his point. Chief Justice Ruffin, of that State, has recently expressed the opinion that all these proceedings are null and void. If President Johnson's present idea relative to the rebel States are correct, we do not see how he is to help agreeing with the Chief Justice.

AN impression prevails, to some extent, that the Senate modified the test oath to suit the situation of Mr. Patterson, of Tennessee, son-in-law to the President. Such is not the fact. The oath was distinctly insisted on, in all its fullness, and was taken. How Mr. Patterson, after holding the office of President Judge under the Confederacy, could take that oath, will cause most people to marvel.

IT is now declaired by the authorities of Louisiana, that no delegates shall be appointed from that State to the Philadelphia Union Convention, and that no meeting for the appointment of such delegates shall be held. Is this, also, by authority of the President? Does he think he is an absolute Dictator?

MR. GEO. H. PENDLETON is improving on President Johnson. The latter publicly denounced the Republican members of Congress, who stood by the government all through the war, as traitors and disunionists. The former impeaches the loyalty of Gen. Grant.

THE seven deadly sins of the New Orleans Unionists are the seven resolutions in which, on the Saturday before the outbreak, they pronounced their judgment as to the measures needful to a permanent and righteous pacification of the country.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON began his downward course by betraying the confidence of the men who elected him to power, and now stands before the world as chiefly responsible for a deliberate massacre of the Union men of New Orleans.

THE Republican Congressional Conference for the Twenty-third District met on Friday last, but the conferees of Butler county failing to appear, the Conference adjourned without naming a candidate.

JAMES E. BROWN, of Mercer county, was nominated as the Republican candidate for State Senator on the eighty-second ballot. This district is composed of Venango, Mercer and Warren counties.

ON Saturday last, the Republican Congressional Conference was still in session at Meadville, with no more prospect of agreeing on a candidate than when they first met, ten days before.

Quarantine Regulations—United States Consul General at Havanna to State Department—Securities of the Government for National Bank Note Circulation—Andrew J. Faulk, of Pa., Appointed Governor of Dakota—Senate Postmaster Removed.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The following has been received at the State Department, from the Consulate General of the United States:

HAVANA, July 25th, 1866.

Hon. W. H. Seward, Secretary of State, Washington.

SIR:—Referring to my dispatch, No. 217, I have to advise that only vessels from New York have thus far been subject to the quarantine regulations therein mentioned, but it will be applied to those from other ports of the United States, where the newspapers may report the cholera to exist. I have not yet had an answer from the Captain General on the subject, but I am informed that the same was duly referred to the Superior Board of Health by which the resolution was manifested.

The Captain General last Saturday told me that very stringent orders had come to him from Spain to adopt measures against the introduction of cholera into this Island. The last vessel from New York admitted to free pratique immediately was the Moro Castle, which left that port on the 4th inst. An English brig, which sailed seven days before her and was fourteen days in passage, was put in quarantine. The steamers Daniel Webster and Eagle have been subjected to the same, and have not been allowed to land their passengers or cargoes while remaining in quarantine. The bills of health now issued by the board here contain the notification that there are some cases of yellow fever and small pox prevalent. I make this known to the Mayors of Baltimore and New York by the steamer Cuba, which takes this to the first named port.

I have the honor to be, sir,
With great respect,
Your obedient servant,
THOMAS SAVAGE,
United States Consul General.

The total amount of securities received by the government for the circulation of national bank notes, is $329,109,700, and for deposits $38,340,500.

The President has ordered the appointment of Andrew J. Faulk, of Pennsylvania, to be Governor of Dakota, vice Newton Edwards. A. P. German has been removed from the position of Postmaster of the United States Senate, his dismissal to take effect on the 1st prox.

Secretary McCulloch, with his family, left Washington this evening for a short tour of recreation. He will be absent about a week or ten days.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

Supreme Court Decision in Favor of the City—Decline in Exports—Increase of Clearances—Tobacco Market—Political Excitement in Idaho—Mining Prospects Bright—Advices from Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The State Supreme Court has decided the case of Herz against the city of San Francisco, in favor of the city, which settles the last of the six city slip suits pending in the courts. The points of the decision are that money must come lawfully into the treasury, and the city must draw it lawfully.

The exports of merchandize for the past month show a decrease of six hundred thousand dollars from that of the corresponding month last year, during which the exports of treasure were one million dollars greater. The clearances during the first seven months of the present year were seventy more than during the same period last year. The tobacco market shows more tone since the passage of the new tariff act; sales of three hundred thousand concha and regna cigars at $80 @100 per thousand.

Idaho dates of July 17th, report that the political contest was waxing warm, both sides throwing dirt profusely.

Mining prospects are reported bright.

The barque Kate brings dates from Sydney to May 19th, and Melbourne to May 31st. California flour was quoted at Sydney at £16 10s per ton, and wheat at 6s 6d per bushel, and California flour at Melbourne at £19 per ton.

Mining shares improved. Chollar, 1,82; Belcher, 1,60; Ophir, 2,70. Legal Tenders, 72; California State Telegraph shares, 30. General markets are dull. Leading brands of flour in good demand for export bakers; extra, $6,25 per bbl; sales 1,270 sacks choice mulberry wheat at $1,55 per 100 lbs. At an auction sale of tobacco, natural leaf brands brought $1,4½, and green smoking tobacco at 14c.

HOSTILITIES SUSPENDED FOR EIGHT DAYS.

FARTHER POINT, Aug. 4.—The steamship Moravian, from Liverpool on the 26th, via Londonderry on the 27th ult., has arrived off this point.

London, July 26th—a. m.—The armistice between Prussia and Austria expires to-day. It will probably be renewed, but there is no intimation as yet of this having been done.

The government has announced its intention of prolonging the suspension of the habeas corpus act in Ireland.

Previous to the armistice the Italians had been very successful in the South Tyrol.

Liverpool, July 27.—The following steamships have arrived: Tripoli, Damascus, Saronia, City of London, Bremen and Pennsylvania.

Liverpool, July 26.—Notice has been issued that the Government has agreed with the council of the Reform League to facilitate in every way their obtaining a speedy decision, either in Parliament or in a Court of the laws, to their right to hold public meetings in the Park, and that until the question has been decided no further meetings will be held, except one on the afternoon of the 30th, by arrangement with the Government. This statement, however, is contradicted in a letter from Mr. Walpole, who states that no permission has been given to hold meetings, but that the Government merely promised to withdraw the police and military under the express stipulation that no attempt would be made to insist upon the supposed right to hold meetings until the legal question had been decided.

The Star, Telegraph and Advertiser represent the step taken by the Home Secretary as a compromise and a partial discomfiture of the Government.

The Times says that the armistice did not come a moment too soon to save Austria from a final catastrophe; yet one day more and the Italians would have found themselves in full possession of the Southern Tyrol, and the Prussians masters of the passes of the Danube, and would have threatened Vienna on the east and west. The combatants are now resting irrespective of their positions, and there are well grounded hopes that the truce may be prolonged into an armistice, and this again into a definite peace.

On the 25th a suspension of hostilities for eight days was concluded upon between the Italians and Austrians.

Liverpool, July 27th.—Cotton; sales for the week, 102,500 bales. The market opened buoyant and advanced 1d, which was partially lost, and closed quiet at an advance of ⅛d on the week for American, ⅛@¼d for Egyptian, and ¼d for other descriptions. Breadstuffs have a downward tendency. Provisions inactive.

A Hungarian legion, formed of prisoners of war, had been sent to southern Silesia to invade Hungary on the expiration of the armistice. This body consists of 9,000 men, with cavalry and artillery of its own, and is commanded by Gen. Klapka.

An engagement had taken place before Presburg, which was a great success for the Prussians. At noon the Prussian Boze Brigade was in the Austrian rear. The principal attack was in progress when fighting was broken off by the armistice. The Austrians, in order to reach Presburg, had to pass the Boze Brigade.

On the 23d the Italians, under Gen. Medici, had a fight near Borges, with the Austrians. The Italians took the village by assault, and pursued the enemy to Levica. There resistance again being offered, the Italians carried the town by assault. The Austrian losses were heavy.

On the 25th a suspension of hostilities for eight days was concluded between the Italians and Austrians.

FRANCE.—On the 25th, the Bourse was flat; rentes, 66f 70c.

PRUSSIA.—The Prussian Chambers would probably be opened by the Minister of Finance, the King and Count Bismarck being detained at the headquarters of the army. It was denied that General Marti had threatened to bombard Frankfort, if the contribution demanded was not paid. It was rumored that the Grand Dukes of Oldenburg and Saxe-Coburg will receive an increase of territory under the proposed new German Confederation.

ROME.—Cardinal Antonelli is again reported to be sick, and it was believed he would shortly retire from public affairs.

American securities—Five-Twenties, after touching 71¼, closed at 69@69½. Illinois Central shares had declined from 80 to 77@77½. Erie was quoted at 44.

LATEST VIA LONDONDERRY, LIVERPOOL, July 27.—The steamship Napoleon Third, from New York, arrived at Brest on the 24th.

The armistice between Prussia and Austria expires to-day. It will probably be renewed, but no information to that effect has been received.

COMMERCIAL.—Liverpool, July 27th.—Cotton opened buoyant at an advance of ¼d for American, and closed dull and unchanged, with a downward tendency; sales of four days, 49,000 bales, including 19,000 to speculators and exporters; middling uplands about 14¼d.

Breadstuffs very dull, with a declining tendency, and all descriptions slightly lower. Richardson, Spence & Co. report flour dull and 1s lower; wheat steady, at a decline of 2d@3d; corn flat, at a decline of 3d@6d; mixed 27s 3d.

Provisions inactive. The same authority reports beef quiet, pork inactive, bacon heavy and 1s@2s lower. Lard very dull and quotations nominal. Tallow quiet.

Produce.—Ashes quiet and unchanged; pots 29s. Sugar quiet but firm. Coffee steady at unchanged rates. Rice is quiet and steady. Spirits Turpentine steady. Rosin steady, with small sales. Petroleum inactive.

Tax on Savings Banks—Letter from Revenue Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has written the following letter with relation to the tax on Savings Banks:

Treasury Department, Office of Internal Revenue, Washington, August 4, 1866.—Sir: Your letter of the 31st ult. is received. Section 110 of the act of the 13th ult. provides that every National banking association, State bank or State banking association, shall pay a tax of ten per centum on the amount of notes of personal State bank of State banking association used for circulation and paid out, by them after the first day of August, instant.

You inquire if savings banks are subject to the tax thus imposed? Is the association in question a bank or banking association? If it is, I see no reason why it is not subject to tax. The purpose of the law, as evinced by the amount of tax, was unquestionably the suppression of State bank circulation, and as savings banks are not specially excluded, it is just, and in fact necessary, to presume that they are included among the banks liable to tax. Banks are fully defined in paragraph one of section 79 of the law. It is there provided that every incorporated or other bank, and every person, firm or company, having a place of business where credits are opened by the depositor, collection of money or currency subject to be paid or remitted upon draft, check or order, or where money is advanced or loaned in stocks, bonds, bullion, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, shall be regarded as a bank, or as a broker. It was necessary, it seems, in the opinion of Congress, that in the paragraph here cited, savings banks should be specially exempted by name in order to relieve them of the special tax, but no exemption in their favor is made in the 9th section now in question. The general provision of that section, therefore, must fall upon all banks, whether of issue or savings.

Very respectfully,
E. A. ROLLINS, Commissioner.

A Tanner in Trouble.

Catherine Fisher resides in Reserve township, as does also a German named Chas. Crescher. Charles, it appears, follows the odorous occupation of tanning hides, or in other words, of preparing the skin of the bovine and equine animal for the use of the followers of St. Crispin, preparatory to adorning the polar extremities of humanity with the same. Forgetting her own necessities and those of her fellow beings, Catherine, determined to lay an embargo on Crescher's business, and in order to accomplish this result she appeared before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, and made an information against him for keeping and maintaining a nuisance, in the shape of a tanyard from whence arises a stench of such a villainous character as to jeopardize the health of the entire neighborhood. On being arrested, Crescher stated, that during twenty years he had been employed in his present vocation he had never yet sustained any injury to his health, and concluded by asserting that the household of the prosecutrix emitted as disgusting an effluvia as did his place of business, and that the only trouble rested in the fact that Catharine was afflicted with a nasal organ of undue proportions, rendering her capable of smelling a great deal that would not reach the noses of others.

Despite the defense set up Crescher was required to give bail for a further hearing to-day at four o'clock.

An Elopement—A Widow Deserts Her Children and Elopes With a Married Man.

For some time past a certain William J. Clark, a resident of Kris street, in the Seventh ward, had been paying love-like devotions at the shrine of a prepossessing widow named Sarah Ballard, who, in order to procure the staff of life for herself and three children—the eldest of whom is but five years—kept a variety store at the corner of Roberts street and Centre avenue, where each evening William could be found basking in the sunny smiles of his inamorata. Unfortunately for the lovers, William has a wife, and they were, therefore, unable to consummate the measure of their love at the connubial altar. On Thursday evening of last week, preliminaries having been arranged, the pair started from the domicil of the widow, and took the cars Eastward. Mrs. Ballard placed two of her children in an orphan asylum, and left a third at the house of a friend. Steps have been taken by the deserted wife to trace out the guilty parties.

An Owner Found.

A few weeks since we mentioned the fact that an old woman, rejoicing in the euphonious appellation of "Cock Robin," had been arrested in a back yard, off Fifth street, with a calico dress, a thimble, a package of thread and a small sum of money in her possession. As the woman referred to is well known as a vagrant, it was supposed that the articles mentioned were stolen, and "Cock Robin" was accordingly transmitted to the Maison de White, on a charge of vagrancy, in the absence of any testimony to warrant her commitment for larceny. In the meantime the articles were placed in a secure place in the watch-house to await identification. On Saturday one of Mayor Morrison's police called on Mr. McCarthy and informed him of the fact that the stolen articles belonged to Mrs. Morrison, the wife of the Mayor of Allegheny City. The goods were returned to the lady, who fully identified them. "Cock Robin" was discharged a few days since from jail, and has not yet been arrested.

Bounty Case Argued.

In the District Court, on Saturday, before Judges Hampton and Williams, an argument was heard in a case stated on a question of bounty. The plaintiff, George Cassiday, a resident of Pittsburgh, enlisted in December, 1863, under the call for 700,000 men, issued in October of the same year, was credited to the quota of the city, at large, and never having received any bounty, comes, it is claimed, within the provisions of an act passed by the Legislature, in May, 1866, providing for the payment of $300 in such cases. Capt. J. W. Kirker appeared on behalf of the plaintiff, and was opposed by Capt. J. F. Slagle, City Solicitor. The act of Assembly is claimed to be unconstitutional, and a final decision of the matter will be awaited with much interest, there being a considerable number of claimants for bounty under the act, and the aggregate amount involved considerable.

Amicably Arranged.—Chris. Dietrich came before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, and made oath against Fristy Reiter for surety of the peace. The parties are boarders at Lang's Hotel, in the Fifth ward. At the hearing the principles and their friends indulged in a lengthy debate, which, being carried on in a foreign tongue, we were unable to get the gist of. From what followed, however, we are led to suppose it was of a conciliatory turn, as Deitrich and Reiter informed the magistrate, through the aid of an interpreter, that they had concluded to "bury the hatchet," and should henceforth live in harmony and good fellowship. The costs were divided, and the matter ended.

Two Deaths from Cholera in the City.—On Friday morning an English emigrant named David Antrose, who had just arrived in this city, direct from New York, died in the Mercy Hospital of what the Hospital Physician stated to be Asiatic cholera. On the same day, about five o'clock in the evening, a colored man named Alexander Johnson, recently from St. Louis, expired at the house of a friend at the corner of Webster and Gum streets, of the same disease. He had been in perfect health until five hours before his demise. Dr. McNary was the attending physician.

Boy Killed in Lawrenceville.—Yesterday afternoon a boy named Michael Herron, while endeavoring to leap on one of the passenger cars of the Citizens Passenger Railway in the borough of Lawrenceville, missed his footing and fell beneath the wheels, which passed over his right leg near the body. He was taken to his home in the village of Hatfield, where medical aid was summoned and the injured limb amputated. A few hours after the operation had been performed he expired.

The County Prison Board held a regular meeting on Saturday, and transacted their usual business. The matter about Warden White having, as alleged, acted improperly in the discharge of the duties of his office, was not considered, from the fact of it not being properly presented, and very probably we shall hear no more about it.

In Default of $800.—Justice August Ammon, of East Birmingham, on Saturday committed David Getty to jail, in default of bail in the sum of $800, for trial at the next term of the Quarter Sessions on a charge of assault and battery, on complaint of G. W. Fennell.

The "Dead Rat" of the Dispatch—He Goeth Under, and the Gazette Reporter Rejoiceth Muchly.

A few days ago the Dispatch reporter had the indiscretion and assurance to charge the Gazette with dealing in sensation items, and among the number he cited the "rat story." Knowing that every item which has appeared of late in this journal would bear the closest scrutiny and examination, we felt inclined to furnish our officious neighbor with the names of the sorrow-stricken parents of the unfortunate children who were killed by the rats. Conceiving, however, that our saucy neighbor would rejoice exceedingly if he could force us into a corner upon the "rat question," we purposely laid our plans to place him in a position which would prove extremely awkward. We have been successful. The Dispatch man has walked into our trap and we have him a prisoner to punish as we choose. Previous to knocking the plank from under his lazy feet, we would call our readers to witness his terrible fall. Let him be known hereafter not as a "dead duck" or a "dead dog" but the "dead rat" of the Dispatch. Hereafter let him abandon his feeble attempts at wit, and, like his brother reporters, search for his items as they search. He must know that the public are not so much interested in his personal quarrels and adventures as they are in the actual transpirings in the city. He must know also, that the reputation of the Dispatch as a local paper cannot be sustained by charging more reliable and enterprising journals with publishing accounts of imaginary occurrences; nor should he expect to discover a huge "mare's nest" in every "rat hole." Stand up Mr. "Dead Rat" of the Dispatch and receive your sentence. You have twice charged us with making the story of the two children who were killed by "Norway" rats, and you ask for names. Here they are, as the Gazette reporter hath recorded them:

Names of children killed by rats—Mary and Sarah Boyd.

Name of father—James Boyd.

Name of mother—Sarah Keenan Boyd.

Occupation of father of children—Plumber.

Where he is employed—at Weldon & Kelly's.

Where the parents reside—corner of Enoch and Roberts streets, 7th ward.

Name of officiating undertaker—John McKeon, Grant street.

Name of boy bitten by rats—James Keenan.

The only paper which reported full particulars—Gazette.

The only paper which doubted the report—Dispatch.

The paper which is always ahead in items of local news—Gazette.

Thus we have disposed of one of the charges brought against us by the "dead rat" of the Dispatch. He said the "rat story" was only "one of a class, in which we get ahead of all other journals." Now we ask for the others, and if the Dispatch has any honor left, it will either name the items referred to, or will publicly withdraw the charge. We are disposed to drop the matter, feeling that the "dead rat" of the Dispatch has been sufficiently punished. We assure our readers that we make truth the basis of all our items, and although we give more reading matter in our local columns than any paper in the city, we are not forced to write sensational items, there being enough of actual happenings every day in this neighborhood to fill a journal twice as large as our own. For the benefit of our readers, Mr. "Dead Rat" of the Dispatch, publish the names of the children killed by rats, and hereafter send to us for a "first edition" and we shall keep you supplied with local news, and not necessitate the clipping from our paper after it is a day old.

Another Oil Disaster.

At an early hour Friday morning a three hundred barrel oil tank, of the Barker Well, on Great Western Run, exploded, through an accident. It appears that the tank was enclosed in a house, and the door was closed, thus allowing a large amount of gas to accumulate. A few feet from the house three men were engaged in making an excavation for the foundation of a larger tank, and one of the men happened to strike a piece of flint with his pick, producing a spark. At the same instant the wind blew the door of the tank-house open, letting out a large volume of gas, which immediately ignited and burst the tank, scattering the burning oil over the men. They were all burnt very severely. Nelson Doan, the one who was using the pick, is very badly injured, as also his fellow workman, Patrick McConnell. David H. Dunley also had his arms and face severely burnt. The loud report, accompanied by a dense column of smoke, clearly indicated to all the workmen, both on Great Western and Pioneer Run, that another fire was in progress. In a few minutes upwards of one hundred men were on the spot with picks and shovels, and it did not take them long to construct a dam sufficiently high to restrain all the oil that could possibly run down, thus saving thousands of dollars worth of property, which otherwise must have been destroyed. The well was owned by Duncan Bros. & Barker, and the loss will be about $2,000. Part of a derrick on lease No. 3½, also a derrick on lease No. 4, were destroyed.

The Allegheny County Prison Association.

We are pleased to announce that the gentlemen engaged in the praiseworthy task of organizing an association for the alleviation of the condition of the unfortunate prisoners in the different places of confinement in this county are meeting with all the encouragement due the enterprise. At a recent meeting of the Association the following gentlemen were elected as officers for the ensuing year:

President—Jos. M. Knight.
Secretary—R. S. Davis.
Treasurer—Jas. D. Carlise.

Visiting Committee—Dr. Robt. Wray, P. H. Laufman, Ormsby Phillips, E. S. Carpenter, Rev. John G. Brown, D. D., W. G. Johnston, F. Van Gorder, Geo. A. Kelly, Capt. Wood, (Fort Perry,) Chas. Arbuthnot, Jno. A. Caughey, W. B. Copeland, Robt. Orr, John S. Davidson, T. H. Lane, Rev. Jno. Douglas, D. D., Dr. Cooley, J. R. Reed, Jos. Horne, T. P. Houston, C. T. Ewing, Rev. A. K. Bell, D. D., B. Preston, H. J. Lynch.

The Association will meet at the Board of Trade Rooms to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

Episcopal.

The rite of confirmation was administered to a number of persons yesterday, in St. John's Episcopal Church, by the Rt. Rev. John B. Kerfoot, Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. To-day the Bishop will assist in the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the new Episcopal Church in course of erection at Oil City. The service will be held on the ground, corner of Buffalo and High streets. The new edifice is to be a fine specimen of ecclesiastical architecture. The style is the early English of the thirteenth century. It is to be nearly all of stone, and of ample size to meet the wants of the growing congregation.

Discharged on Bail and Re-arrested.

On Saturday Michael Leonard, charged with having in his possession counterfeit plates on the Citizens Bank of this city, had a hearing before Alderman Strain, and was discharged from custody on giving security in the sum of $1000 for his appearance for trial. Soon after his release, he was arrested on a warrant issued by S. L. McCandless, Esq., United States Commissioner, to answer the charge of having in his possession moulds or dies for the manufacture of counterfeit United States coin. On this charge he will probably have a hearing to-day.

Critical.—Patrick Cullagan, who was shot some time since by William Seibert in a drinking saloon at New Castle, and who was subsequently taken to Passavant's Infirmary in this city, is laying in a very critical condition. He was shot in the leg, and the wound was so serious that amputation was decided upon. The operation, however, has been postponed, as the physician fears that he is too weak to recover from it. Seibert, who is in the Lawrence county jail, is said to have admitted that he did the shooting.

Burglars in the First Ward.—On Saturday night at a late hour thieves were caught in the act of entering the residence of Mr. Thomas Adley, on Point street, in the First ward. They were discovered in attempting to force open the back door, but ere they could be captured they made good their escape. In the morning a bunch of false keys was found in the yard through which the burglars made their exit. From these circumstances it is supposed the operators were no novices in the profession.

Scull Race on the Allegheny.—Saturday evening a rather exciting scull race took place on the Allegheny river, between James Scott, in a boat called the "Aleck M'Clure," and Daniel Jordan, in the "Unknown." The start took place about six o'clock, from the Suspension bridge, Scott taking the lead, and gradually widening the distance between him and his competitor, returning to the starting point nearly one hundred yards in advance. Time, fifteen minutes, twenty-eight seconds.

Not True.—A report having been put in circulation that Mr. J. F. Irish, compositor in this office, had challenged Mr. James Hamill for a trial of skill on the banjo, we are requested to state the report is untrue, and, besides, absurd, as Mr. Hamill is not a musician. Mr. Irish is celebrated as a banjo player, and we learn from him that there has been some talk of a contest between him and another of the profession.

Fell from a Derrick.—A sad accident occurred on Cherry Run, Venango county, on Wednesday afternoon. A young man named Henry Ridley fell from a derrick on which he was at work, striking several times on the scaffolding before reaching the ground. He was so severely injured that he died on Thursday.

A Negro Killed.—On Saturday afternoon a colored man, whose name we did not learn, was struck by a passenger train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, coming west, shortly after passing Johnstown. The man was walking on the track and was struck by the cowcatcher.

From Indiana Township.—On Saturday Benjamin Douthett, Esq., Justice of the Peace in Indiana township, committed to jail Henry Folch for trial on a charge of feloniously taking a hat and vest from the house of Daniel Boyd, in said township.

Drowned.—A little girl, daughter of Reuben Kintzer, was drowned in Wild Cat Run, Clarion county, a few days since, by falling off a log on which she was endeavoring to cross, on her way home from school.

Killed.—James Boyle, a lad about eight years of age, was run over by a wagon, in Harrisburg, on Friday last, and almost instantly killed.

The Liquor License Court.—Judges Mellon and Brown, on Saturday, continued the hearing of applications for tavern and eating-house license, and finished the list about one o'clock. There were quite a number of re-hearings, and but comparatively few remonstrances.

Struck with a Stone.—Margaret Murdoch was before Justice Lipp, on Saturday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Daniel Davis. The prosecutor stated that Margaret struck him with a stone on the head, cutting him severely. The accused gave bail for a hearing.

Discharged From Jail.—Thomas Dougherty, the man shot by Darbey McDonough a few weeks ago, and committed in default of payment of fine and costs imposed in an assault and battery case, was released from jail on Saturday.

Alarm of Fire.—The alarm of fire on Saturday morning was occasioned by the burning of a lot of old paper in a room on the fourth story of the St. Charles Hotel. The fire was extinguished without the aid of the fire department.

FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

This new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most potent alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination, and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increased appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of its medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to [illegible] the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather,

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entire NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

No representative assembly ever had so many or so violent reproaches heaped upon it as the Congress of the United States whose first session has just ended. Conservatives have said all manner of evil of it, and given it credit for not one excellence. The most of the objurgations leveled at it may be classified under two heads. 1. That it is a factious assembly, deluded and misled by ungovernable passions, and devoid of the mortal faculties and attainments needful to direct its conduct. 2. That the members of the two Houses are low, coarse, ignorant and fanatical adventurers, who, by craft or force, or both combined, have thrust themselves into places of power and authority, which they persist in holding against rightful claimants. Let us consider both of these points:

1. It is true Congress has not found it easy to agree either upon all matters of principle or detail. "Many men of many minds," holds true wherever human beings are allowed to think and act for themselves. There is one way, and only one, for reconciling such discrepancies of opinion, which is the pressure of a military or imperial government. Even under such a government the end is not certainly obtained. Napoleon III. has found it difficult, at times, with nine hundred thousand bayonets awaiting his nod, to make the members of the Corps Legislatif concur as to ideas and measures among themselves, or with him. In spite of the traditions of the Empire, of the allurements of imperial patronage, and of the coercion of almost unlimited power, men will differ in judgment, and will express their differences, even under great and imminent hazards.

This sort of deliberative assembly, in which the will of one man is made the measure of wisdom and rectitude, seems to delight both conservative republicans and democrats. With as little variation as practicable, considering the situation of the two countries, they are trying to get up such a convocation at Philadelphia. All the men of strong convictions and uncompromising honesty are to be rigidly excluded. Southern men, who have opinions for which they have periled their "lives, fortunes, and sacred homes," are to be shut out. Northern men, who have crowned their professions with a heroic self-sacrifice unmatched in history, are not to be allowed to enter. Only those impassive men who were never agitated with a great emotion; those sordid men who contemn the sway of ideas and sentiments; and those facile men who are constantly ready to be "all things to all men" that they may gain honor and place for themselves, are to be welcomed to seats. These discriminations, considering the end to be obtained, are well taken. Only an assembly, constituted after this method, could be expected to concur without conviction and to decide without deliberation. But it is questionable whether the proposed discriminations can be so effectually enforced as to make the Philadelphia Convention a perfectly harmonious body, even with the advantages that the opinions it may express bind no one, and the measures it may propose dissolve into nothingness.

2. The members of Congress hold their places legitimately by authority of the people of their respective districts. Those against whom loudest complaints are made have been repeatedly elected, and will continue to be—for the simple reason that they are true and efficient representatives of local sentiment. Take Mr. THADDEUS STEVENS as an illustration. "Does he not stand or fall to his own masters?" Shall the men of Berks dictate to the men of Lancaster, what sort of a person they shall send to Congress? There has been too much of this insolence already. What does popular government imply but this, that the will of the different constituencies shall be fairly represented, subject to the general limitations of the Constitution? These conservatives talk as if they believed no citizen had a right to an opinion who differed from them in judgment, and as if earnestness was an offence that ought to be punished more severely than stealing.

BROOMALL, KELLEY, STEVENS, WILLIAMS, and the like, have constituencies who confide in and honor them. Gentlemen Conservatives! how do you expect to help yourselves? Are you so simple as to suppose you can by bluster frighten those constituencies out of their rights, and make them select men to represent anybody else rather than themselves? If you could, popular government would be virtually subverted. The Union might in courtesy continue to be called a republic, but it would be such only in name, while in fact it would be almost anything else.

When the country shall be ultimately pacified, it will be by the drawing together, through the progress of events, of the earnest men from the two extremes of thought and action. The lukewarm, anywhere, are only fit to be spued out. Nor is it difficult to foresee on what bases such coming together will be effected. Slavery has perished. Of course it has left deep traces in the opinions, feelings and habits of the population among whom it existed. These traces cannot reasonably be expected to disappear immediately. But with the removal of slavery an identity of institutions is established, and this will end in producing oneness of interests, wants and desires. Herein is to be found the genuine solidarity of the Union.

IT is now manifest that the New Orleans massacre was deliberately planned; that it was part of a system by which the white Unionists in Louisiana were all to be murdered or driven out of the State; that a further object was to squelch the rising aspirations of the blacks; that the murderers were the supporters of the President's Policy, and believed their enterprise was sanctioned by him.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The following telegraphic dispatch shows that unprecedented progress is making in the construction of this important line. At the present rate of progress the completion of the road to Denver, at the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, will be accomplished in two or three years. Mr. Thomas C. Durant and his associates are live managers, and whatever they attempt is certain to be prosecuted with the utmost ability and energy:

"NEW YORK, Aug. 4, 1866.
Springer Harbaugh, Government Director Union Pacific Railroad, Pittsburgh:—Two and a half miles of track laid yesterday. We shall be at Fort Kearney September 1st, and cross the one hundredth meridian within ninety days.
(Signed,) THOS. C. DURANT,
Vice President.

OHIO RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

WASHINGTON, August 3, 1866.
HON. J. K. MOORHEAD:—Order has been given for the employment of W. Milnor Roberts as engineer, to have charge of the improvement on the Ohio River. Pittsburgh is assigned as his station.
EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

From the foregoing it appears that arrangements have been made for an early commencement of the work on the Ohio river. Mr. Roberts will be in the city within a few days to organize his corps and commence operations.

AS A CONSEQUENCE of success on the part of their friends engaged in the New Orleans mob, there is a profound ferment among the old slaveholding class all through the Southern States. They now know they have the national administration on their side, and feel safe in venturing any excesses, dictated either by their principles or passions. As an illustration, take this, from the Nashville Banner:

"We are shown the natural end of the violent schemers who are plotting for power in Louisiana. Such will be the end of the same men, duplicated, here in Tennessee. They are already hastening their own destruction by passing the bounds not only of patience, but of prudence and human forbearance. The people of Tennessee are a sober and peaceably disposed class, but it is dangerous to meddle with them too far. The wretches who compose the Metropolitan Police may yet find it so to their cost."

Unless some method shall be devised to stop the tide of reaction, the white Unionists will be driven out of the South, and the black ones squelched under the heels of their late owners.

THE Galveston (Texas) Bulletin, referring to the admission of Tennessee, says:

"We can see nothing to prevent Texas from presenting herself at once, with a full force of loyal Congressmen and having them at once admitted, but for the want of the President's proclamation, declaring peace within her borders. But it will do no good to send Confederate cotton agents, Colonels, nor Generals—they will be sent home again. It does not appear from the telegraphic dispatches that the President made the anticipated protest in signing the resolution so promptly, for it increases the majority against him, and adds two powerful opponents to the House. Stokes and Maynard have few equals on the floor, as energetic speakers."

AT Louisville, on the 4th inst., at a democratic meeting, three hearty cheers were given for Gen. Lee, after an extravagant eulogium on that officer by one of the speakers. The President's Policy tends to make it perilous to be numbered among the defenders of the Union.

A DELEGATION of New York bankers are in Washington trying to secure the removal of Secretary McCulloch. They are backed by Mr. Thurlow Weed. No matter by whom they are backed—they can do the country no harm by succeeding in their project.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Where, oh where, is De Santy?

—They make telegraph poles of mahogany in South Australia.

—The dog tax in Great Britain amounted last year to $219,513.

—Ground has been broken for the introduction of water into New Bedford.

—Another alum strike has been made on the surface of the rocks in New Lebanon, N. Y.

—Sewing silk stolen from a factory in Connecticut was recovered in a New York grog-shop.

It is said more damage has been caused by lightning the present year than during five ordinary years.

—Harvard having shown itself superior to Yale in sculls, had now better try to be superior to it in brains.

—Gen. Basil Duke is now engaged in writing a history of the life and military services of Gen. Morgan.

—A vein of lead ore, six feet thick, estimated to yield ninety per cent. metal, has been opened at Newberry, Green county, Ind.

—A young Schenectady lady has become insane in consequence of the opposition of her friends to a match upon which she had set her heart.

—The Canadian Government is said to have information that a second Fenian invasion will soon take place, and a war with the United States is hinted at.

—Frederick Klumbach, an employee of the New York Central Railroad, was killed near the depot in Utica, Friday afternoon, while endeavoring to couple cars together.

—A gentleman was stopped in Indianapolis on Saturday night as he was returning home, by three robbers, who forced him to give up some £1,700 and a valuable gold watch.

—Hon. A. W. Hubbard, the present member of Congress from the northwestern district in Iowa, (the Sixth), was nominated for re-election by the Republican Convention in that district.

—Dean Richmond, President of the New York Central Railroad Company, and a leading Democratic politician, reports his income for last year at $108,721. In early life he was a poor boy and a canal driver.

—Fighting between the Indians and soldiers at Idaho is reported. There had been several casualties on both sides. A company of forty soldiers was, at last accounts, surrounded by Indians, awaiting reinforcements.

—A great Southern Telegraph Company is being formed in Louisville with a capital of a million dollars. Gen. Kirby Smith is President, with his headquarters in Louisville, and Gen. Don Carlos Buell, Vice President.

—The military prisoners confined in the Ohio Penitentiary are being discharged under the recent order of the President. Among others is Dr. Paine, who was captured two years ago, and was at one time under sentence of death as a rebel spy.

—Gambling continues to be as popular and extravagant as ever in Paris. One gentleman lost $50,000 in one night, at the Jockey Club, recently. It is said the winnings of the Duke of Beaufort, in consequence of the success of Ceylon, amount to £400,000 or $1,000,000.

—It is thought to be something remarkable that whereas previous cholera seasons were noted for the entire absence of thunder and lightning, this summer we have had more of these than was ever known before. This fact would seem to demolish the theory that the pestilence is caused by a lack of electricity in the atmosphere.

—The associate press of this country propose to spend $125,000 a year for European news by the Atlantic cable. They will have two dispatches a day, made up in London at three o'clock in the morning and three o'clock in the afternoon, which will be the same as 10 p. m. and 10 a. m. New York time, and reach here in season for morning and evening papers.

SIMON CAMERON, of Pennsylvania, has taken strong ground against the President, whom he pronounces, without reserve, "a bad man, faithless to his promises, and an enemy to his country."—N. Y. Tribune.

CHOLERA! CHOLERA!! CHOLERA!!!

With the almost certain advent of cholera with the coming of the spring, no thoughtful person will be unprepared for it. Secure what experience has demonstrated to be the most certain antidote—that which has cured once will cure again—and never purchase a new and untried article, when an old and reliable article can be had.

When the cholera visited us on two former occasions, it was found by experience that

FLEMING'S CHOLERA MIXTURE

Was the best and superceded all others, therefore it stands to reason that, if you would have an article that you can depend on, you should purchase it to the exclusion of all others. Sold only in Pittsburgh, at

The Arsenal Explosion—The Question of Coroner's Fees—Case Decided.

Upon the trial (in June last) we made note of the points involved in the case of John McClung, late Coroner, vs. Allegheny County. The plaintiff held inquests upon the bodies of the persons killed by the explosion at the Allegheny Arsenal in Lawrenceville, in September, 1864, and brought suit for his fees, amounting to $393.62, which the County Controller refused to pay. A verdict was rendered in favor of plaintiff, subject to the opinion of the Court on a reserved question of law. This opinion Judge Stowe delivered in the Court of Common Pleas on Saturday, as follows:

The question arising in this case is whether the Coroner of Allegheny county is entitled to fees for holding inquests upon persons killed within the arsenal grounds at Lawrenceville. We may assume that the United States have exclusive jurisdiction of all criminal offences committed within the limits of the ground owned by her, and also that the Coroner may possibly have no right to go upon them, against the wishes of the Government, for the purpose of holding inquests, and yet we do not think it necessarily follows that the Coroner has no right to investigate the death of one found dead upon the Government ground.

It is the duty of the Coroner, as declared by the Statute of 4th Edward I, Statute 2, A. D., 1276, in force in Pennsylvania, "to go to the place where any be slain or suddenly dead" * * * "and inquire, if it concerns a man slain, if they know where the person was slain; whether it was in any house, field, shed, tavern or company, and, if any, who were there. Likewise, it is to be inquired who were culpable, and in what manner, either of the act, or of the force, and who were present, &c." This act was confirmed and extended by Statute 3, Henry 7, chapter 1, A. D., 1486, also in force in Pennsylvania. This enacts inter alia, "that every Coroner exercise and do his office according to the law, as is afore rehearsed, &c."

The subjects of inquiry for the Coroner's inquest are cases of sudden and violent death, whether they take place from the visitation of God, by misfortune, or by suicide, or by the hand of another, or by accident, and also of all those who die in prison. The deaths occurring at the arsenal were such as it was the duty of the Coroner to investigate—whether they were purely accidental, the result of carelessness, or willful. In his judicial capacity, the Coroner could know nothing of where or how the deaths occurred, till he had sworn the jury and heard the evidence. Finding dead bodies in the county of Allegheny, it was his duty to make such proper inquiries as pertained to his office, to determine how they came to their death. It is true that if upon inquiry it appeared that the acts producing death were exclusively within the jurisdiction of the United States, the Coroner would have no further jurisdiction in the matter than so to report. He has no power to commit for trial in the United States Courts.

The object of the inquest is to find whether any offence has been committed against the laws of Pennsylvania. It would never do to hold that because the dead body of a murdered person was found upon the United States grounds, therefore no offence was committed against the laws of Pennsylvania. Persons might be killed outside and put within them. One might readily be killed upon them by another, at the time not within the inclosure, and both the parties might be within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States at the time of the killing, while others, either principals or accessories before the fact, (of all which the Coroner must inquire,) were solely subject to the State laws.

These facts can only be discovered by the Coroner upon the investigation, and if he can get a view of the bodies, whether in or outside of the United States' jurisdiction, so as to be able to swear the jury, to give him jurisdiction in the premises, his authority attaches throughout the whole investigation, and is in no wise affected by the fact that he may find the laws of Pennsylvania were not violated, but, if any, only the laws of the United States.

These conclusions decide the reserved question in favor of plaintiff, because, if the Coroner had a right to investigate the deaths, his fees attach as a matter of course.

There is a question, which is not raised by the record, incidentally involved in this case which we must not be considered as deciding, to-wit: That the Coroner can charge separate fees upon several bodies viewed by the same jury and comprehended in one general return, as was done in this case. If the question had been made by counsel for the county, I think I should have entertained a contrary opinion, but as it was not, I only mention it here that we may not be taken to have decided such to be the law. The most I can say in favor of such a position is that we leave it an open question.

Let judgment be entered upon the reserved question in favor of plaintiff for the amount of verdict upon payment of verdict fee.

A Sanguinary Threat.

John Simmons was before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, on a charge of surety of the peace, preferred against him by William Cunningham. The parties occupy rooms in a house situated on Locust street, in the Eighth ward, and up to a few days since had lived in perfect harmony with each other. Yesterday, however, Simmons purchased a pair of game chickens, and, in order to keep them secure, placed them in the garret of the house, which, according to certain stipulations, agreed upon when the premises were leased, is the joint property of Simmons and Cunningham. Being elated with their lofty position, they gave expression to their satisfaction by long, loud and continued crowing, which had the effect of awakening Cunningham's baby, and setting it into paroxisms of infantile rage. The equanimity of the junior member of the house of Cunningham being disturbed, aroused the ire of the indulgent father, who hastened to inform Simmons if he did not remove the cause of grief he would take the responsibility of killing the noisy birds. To this threat Simmons responded by quietly intimating that in case the foregoing vow was acted on, he would not only kill Cunningham, but his wife and child also. On this threat was based the prosecution, which resulted in the accused being held in $300 to keep the peace.

Sentenced for Violating the Liquor Law

The Quarter Sessions Court assembled on Saturday, at ten o'clock—Judges Sterrett and Stowe on the bench—and the following persons were sentenced for violating the liquor law:

Conrad Eberhardt, of Troy Hill, Reserve township, against whom there were two indictments for selling liquor on Sunday, was in court according to arrangement. He had been present previously, but had his sentence deferred on the strength of a physician's certificate that his health was bad, and that confinement in the jail at the time would be highly injurious to him. He was sentenced to undergo twenty-five days' imprisonment, and to pay fines amounting to two hundred dollars.

William Sloan, saloon keeper on Market street, near Second, in the First ward, was fined thirty dollars and costs for selling without license.

James Stephenson, of the same ward, was fined fifty dollars and costs for a like offense.

Pittsburgh Conference Claimants.

The Committee of Stewards appointed at the last session of M. E. Conference in Washington, Penn'a., to estimate the amount necessary to meet the claims on the Superannuated Fund, and distribute the same among the respective districts, at a special meeting filed their assessment on each District as follows:

Pittsburgh District, $2,000; Blairsville District, $750; Uniontown District, $750; Washington District, $800; Barnesville District, $700; Cambridge District, $650; McConnelsville District, $600; Stubenville District, $850; Allegheny District, $1,000. Total $8,000.00.

Tarentum Camp Meeting.—The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company have arranged to issue excursion tickets during the camp meeting at Tarentum, commencing Thursday, August 23d, next. The usual facilities for the transportation of luggage will also be provided. No excursion trains will run on Sunday. Tent-holders and others interested, desiring to accompany the Camp Meeting Committee to the ground, on Thursday morning, the 9th of August, by making known the fact to the committee at the depot, before they leave the city, will be furnished with tickets at excursion rates, good for that day.

Magistrates and Their Returns.—The rules issued upon magistrates to show cause for non-compliance with the act of assembly providing for returns to the office of the Clerk of the Court, monthly, under oath, of informations and recognizances taken by them, are returnable to-day, in the Quarter Sessions Court, and there will doubtless be some argument upon the questions involved. We do not apprehend any breach between the Commonwealth's officer and the magistrates, and the result will doubtless be a distinct understanding about the matter of returns.

Refused.—Judges Sterrett and Stowe, on Saturday, refused the application of J. C. McCarthy, Esq., for the discharge of John Conley, committed by Alderman Strain for entering the law office of Messrs. White & Slagle, on Fifth street, with intent to commit a felony. Mr. McCarthy pressed his application from a belief that in case of trial a jury could not convict, the evidence against the prisoner being by no means conclusive. The Court would not go behind the commitment, but consented to a reduction of the bail from $500 to $300.

The Passenger Railway Switch, at the junction of Tunnel street with Wylie, had better be repaired or properly fixed. The annoyance to passengers and road employees is considerable, as almost every car that passes, upon reaching the switch, has to be shifted by main strength and awkwardness to the proper track, half a dozen or more of the passengers being required to assist in so doing.

Accident.—A little daughter of John B. Marshall, Esq., of the Eighth ward, had her right arm broken by falling, on Saturday, from a high chair on which she had been placed so that she might reach the table, on which dinner was being served. Dr. Warren was called in and reduced the fracture.

Fined.—The firm of Lloyd & Black, proprietors of the Kensington Iron Works, in Pipetown, were fined twenty dollars and costs, on Saturday, by Alderman Morrow, for maintaining a nuisance in the shape of an outhouse attached to their works.

Assault and Battery.—Jerry Regan was before Alderman Taylor on Saturday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Julius Backer, a colored man. Regan gave bail for a hearing to-morrow. The parties both reside in the Sixth ward.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General Sheridan About to Resign—The New Orleans Riots—Commission Appointed to Investigate the Affair—Members of the Convention Indicted—Gen. Baird Ordered Not to Interfere.

NEW YORK, August 4.—A Tribune special from Washington says: Attorney General Herron, who was an officer in the rebel service, virtually ranks General Sheridan, as by the order of the President the military are subject to the call and disposition of the civil authorities. Rumor here to-night says General Sheridan will resign on account of the President's conduct in this affair, and the embarrassing position loyal officers are placed in.

The Tribune's New Orleans special of the 2d says: The Military Commission appointed to investigate the massacre of Union men, took Dr. Dostie's deposition to-day. The Hon. John Henderson and the Rev. Mr. Horton were too weak to give evidence. The Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Hon. Oscar Payratt, the Hon. E. Dupaty and the Hon. George Howe, are among the dangerously wounded not heretofore reported. Governor Hahn and the Hon. S. S. Fish are badly wounded, but will recover. I saw them to-day in the hospital.

The Grand Jury have indicted the members of the Convention, and those of them able to be dragged out were re-arrested. General Baird ordered a stay of the proceedings, but the President telegraphed to him emphatically not to interfere.

The Late Affair at Fort Schuyler.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The parties who were implicated in the recent murder and outrages in Westchester county, when a Miss Hicks was [illegible] and the [illegible] of a Mr. Elliott was broken, are members of Company H, First artillery, and were passed out of Fort Schuyler on the authority of one of them, a Sergeant Doran. One of the party (Burke) is a returned deserter, who had got back to his company only the night before the murder.

The corporal (Fitzgerald) who did the shooting deserted his post to go with them, although he should have refused them permission to pass out. He bears a very bad character in the regiment.

By a decision of Judge McCunn the Health officers are not to be interfered with in removing the fat melting establishments located inside the city limits.

The Cholera in New York—Infected Rags Shipped North.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Twenty-four cases and two deaths by cholera were reported in the city yesterday. Since the 25th of July, according to official report, one hundred and three persons have died in the city from the disease.

The report from Brooklyn gives fifteen cases and six deaths from cholera yesterday.

The disease is abating on Governor's Island, and on David's and Hart's Islands matters appear to be more favorable.

The Post Surgeon at Atlanta, Georgia, informs the health officers that parties there are shipping infected rags north.

Railroad Accident—Several Persons Injured.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A dispatch to the World, dated Rutland, Vermont, says: An accident occurred on the Rutland and Washington Railroad, near Granville, Vermont, yesterday, to the New York Express train which left here at 12:40 P. M., by which two passenger cars were thrown from the track, one of them filled with passengers rolling down a high embankment, and injuring six or eight passengers, some of them severely. The conductor and brakemen were also injured, though not seriously. The wreck has been removed, and the road is now clear.

The Canadian Parliament.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The Tribune's Ottowa, C. W., special says the Republican party has been defeated in their efforts to obtain a democratic form of legislature for Lower Canada, by a vote of sixty-nine to thirty-one. Upper Canada will have a Legislature of one Elective Chamber, which is the form sought by the Republicans of Lower Canada.

Arrival of a French Gunboat.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The French gunboat La Megre arrived at this port. She reports having left the United States steamers Monongahela, Desota, Florida and Mecanico at St. Thomas. She also reports the Bienville to have been at Martinique about the middle of June. All well on board.

CITY ITEMS.

Pittsburgh Grand Concert.

We have been induced to abandon the idea of having a public drawing in distributing our Gifts. We are threatened with arrest if we should persist in doing so. We were compelled, therefore, to place the drawing in the hands of a few disinterested and respectable gentlemen of this city and vicinity who have conducted it where they would not violate the laws of this State and subject themselves to arrest. The Committee have agreed to make a public statement when the gifts are distributed, which will convince all concerned that impartial just[illegible]. The musical entertainment gi[illegible] evening, July 30th, '66, in connection with this enterprise, must suffice. All persons holding tickets whose numbers appear in this list, should forward the same to our address immediately, as we desire to distribute all the valuable gifts this week. Our office is closed for the present in order to prevent the confusion arising from the rush of ticket holders. We will deal fairly with all. But ticket holders must have patience. We prefer to distribute gifts by express and mail. Persons drawing Gifts of Real Estate, will be notified where to meet us to have deeds made out.

Several errors appeared in yesterday's Leader, which are corrected to-day.

Strength for the Exhausted.

Thousands die, as it were, inch by inch, of bodily weakness; for debility will kill as certainly, though not so quickly, as a raging fever. It is asked how the weak shall be made strong; the debilitated sustained and restored; the exhausted refilled with vital energy? We aver that of all invigorating preparations given by science to man, from the institution of the art of healing to the present hour, not one has wrought such wonders in the way of restoration as HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. This is indeed the tonic of tonics. As a revitalizing, strength-supporting, life-prolonging agent, the like of it is not to be found in the catalogue of medicines. Among the various articles used to arouse the dormant powers of nature, it stands alone—the great awakener of the paralyzed physique. It not only awakens the physical powers from a state of collapse and inanition, but it imparts permanent vigor to the muscular and nervous systems—reinforcing, as it were, both the stronghold and the outworks of vitality. The aged, the decrepid, the nervous, the broken-down of both of sexes, are recommended to try it. They will assuredly find it a present help in time of trouble.

Hostetter's Bitters

are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues unsettled, being cloudy, with occasional showers of rain, while the river remains about stationary, with about eighteen inches in the channel. The Advance arrived and departed for Parkersburg, and the New State has withdrawn from the Pittsburgh and Wheeling trade, and gone into the Wheeling and Parkersburg trade.

Capt. Chas. Reynolds, of the steamer Starlight, was in one the street cars during the recent riot in New Orleans, when the car was fired into by the negroes, one of the balls striking Captain Reynolds, causing almost instant death.

The Cincinnati Gazette of Friday says:

Capt. John Conway, of the Silver Cloud No. 2, while visiting Wood's Theater last evening, found a man wearing a suit of clothes that was stolen from him on his last trip. He had the individual arrested, and upon searching him keys and other evidence of his being a burglar were discovered.

Capt. Dan Morton bought the Argyle at sheriff's sale yesterday, for $[illegible]. Her machinery is worth $[illegible].

The mate of the steamer David White raised cholera excitement in St. Louis by telegraphing from Cairo that the White had much sickness on board and nine deaths. The mate's object was to gratify malice entertained toward Captain Vawter as all the sickness and deaths occurred among a lot of mocking birds en route to St. Louis for sale.

We take the following from the Louisville Democrat:

It will be remembered that several boats have already been seized, at this port, for failing to take out license as the law requires, and there are others liable to seizure for the same violation. The Rose Hite, Tyrone, Palestine and others have already been made to "toe the mark." One of the laws under which the libel of steamboats running without license, is in substance as follows: "Act of Congress, approved July 7th, 1838. An act to provide for the better security of the lives of passengers on board of vessels propelled in whole or in part by steam.

Sec. 2. That it shall not be lawful for the owner, master or Captain of any steamboat or vessel, propelled in whole or in part by steam, to transport any goods, wares and merchandise of passengers in or upon bays, lakes, rivers, or other navigable waters of the United States, from and after the said 1st day of October, 1838, without first having obtained from the proper officer a license under the existing laws, and without having complied with the conditions imposed by this act, and for each and every violation of this section, the owner or owners of said vessel shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of $500, and for which sum or sums the steamboat or vessel so engaged shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense."

Enrollments and licenses are either permanent or temporary, the former being those issued in the district where the steamboat belongs, and are good for one year, except a change of ownership, in whole or part, takes place, when they must be surrendered, and a new enrollment and license taken out. A failure to do so involves a penalty of $100. The latter, those granted in other districts, must be surrendered at the custom house at the port to which the boat belongs, within ten days after her arrival at such port. Penalty for failure to do so $[illegible].

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Saturday, August 3, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day as reported by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 147½@147¾; 1881s, 109¾; old 5-20s, 108⅝@108¾; new ditto, 107¼; 10-40s, 99⅛; small do 98⅝; 7-30s, 104½@104⅝. Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 87; Fort Wayne, 104; Erie, 68½; Western Union Telegraph, 55¾; Michigan Southern R. R., 81¾.

Gold, though scarce, is very "bearish." It is thought that the government will soon commence to dispose of some of the large surplus now held. Exchange has become a perfect drug in the market, and can scarcely be sold at any price. 1881 bonds are firm; old Five Twenties have advanced an ⅛; new ditto, ¼. Ten Forties are steady. Seven Thirties are firmer for the August issue. The June series is rather lower, with but a limited demand for them. Holders who have use for their money will prefer to sell these securities instead of borrowing money at high rates, and consequently there are, for the time being, more sellers than buyers. Railroad stocks are strong, and likely to advance still more.

Our local money market is devoid of any special activity. Paper is offered on the street, that, in ordinary times, would be considered fair, but at present, purchasers can only be found at a very heavy, we might say, exorbitant discount. Bank shares are more enquired for, but at reduced rates. A decline of from 10 to 15 per cent from former prices is about a fair quotation for the new institutions. Old and long established institutions where the stock is in the hands of parties who do not stand in need of money, and who not wish to realize, cannot be quoted as do there are no sales.

—For the information of those who are afraid that the Merchants Express Co. will eventually take the same course as the bankers Express Co, we are authorized to state that they can dispose of their stock at a premium by calling at the banking house of Mr. P. R. Mertz.

—In reply to a question raised whether the notes of State Banks could be forwarded to brokers or private bankers for the purpose of being sold, without incurring the liability of the ten per cent tax imposed by the act of July 1866, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue says, if a bank continues to receive the notes of state banks after August 1 instant, and send them to its corresponding bank in large cities for the purpose of redemption only, it will not be considered a paying out of such notes, within the meaning of the act. The notes in question must be forwarded for the special and only purpose of being redeemed, as the same rule would not apply where they are sent for the purpose of being sold, or to make up balances.

—Thompson's Bank Note Reporter says:

The money market continues easy and stocks are again higher, though we strenuously hold to the opinion that money will be tight and currency scarce in the fall, when the staples of all sections of the country are being moved to market. Before January the South and West will require $150,000,000 of currency, and at the same time the Middle, Northern and Eastern States will contract by retiring the old state currency. Fifteen millions more of National currency is all that can be issued to fill the $300,000,000 maximum. The State bank currency to be retired is more than double this amount, so that a positive contraction of currency of somewhere between $[illegible] and $[illegible] per month is now to be encountered. This contraction commences in the wrong season of the year to work mildly.

—The bankers and brokers, taking the letter of the Tax Law as their guide of action, do not attach stamps to their "sales and contract for the sale of Stocks, bonds, gold and silver bullion or coin, promissory notes or other securities," in cases where the amount is less than one hundred dollars. The law fixes "the rate of one cent for every hundred dollars," and "one cent additional on every fractional part of one hundred dollars." By this reading, transactions involving less than one hundred dollars are not liable to tax. The full charge of one cent to fractions above one hundred, it was thought, would make up for fractions under one hundred that might escape taxation.

—The Secretary of the Treasury has decided to confine, for the present, the conversion of Seven Thirties into bonds of 1865 to the August series of notes. This conversion movement has given increased activity to the new Five Twenty bonds, and caused some advance in price. There has been also a small rise on the first series of Seven Thirty per cents, which are immediately convertible, on the equalization of interest, into the 5-20s of 1865, dollar for dollar. As this series falls due, June 15, a year from the 15th instant, the Treasury is willing, we understand, to receive them in exchange for Five Twenties of 1865, without limit as to the amount. Whatever disposition has been shown in the same direction as to the conversion of the second and third series, which do not fall due June 15, and July 15, 1868, has not met with general encouragement from the holders, and it is deemed best hereafter to confine the option to the first series, which must be definitely provided for in the next twelve months.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, }
Saturday, August 4, 1866. }

The produce markets have been dull and inactive during the past week, and there is but little prospect of any immediate improvement. The movements in most of the leading articles have been very light, and of an unimportant character, the demand being very much restricted, and while there has been no remarkable change in values, the tendency seems to be unmistakeably toward lower rates.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and unchanged; good to prime Spring may be quoted at $2,05@2,12. Oats in good supply and very dull. No. 1 Chicago offering at 42@44, and prime white may be quoted at 45@50. Corn is dull, with sales of several car loads during the week at [illegible]; sale of 300 bush Rye, in elevator, at 90. Nothing doing in Barley.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the market is dull and weak, prices are nominally unchanged. Regular sales in small lots from store at $10@10,50 for Spring Wheat; $11 to $11,50 for half Spring and half Winter, and $12 to $12,50 for all Winter. Rye Flour dull and nominal at $6,50. Cornmeal quoted at $4 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quoted firm at 17½@17¾ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; 22 for Plain Hams, and 25 @26 for Sugar Cured. Dried Beef is quoted at 27@28, and Lard at 20@22. Mess Pork dull and nominal at $33,50@34,50.

POTATOES—Dull and in good supply; sales from store at $2,75@3 per bbl.

EGGS—Quiet and unchanged with a supply fully equal to the demand; regular sales at 20 to 21—mostly at 20.

BUTTER—There is a good demand for fresh Butter and but very little offering. Prime fresh packed, in small packages, may be quoted at 26@28, and some holders are asking 28@30 cents.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged. We quote at 15 to 16 for Western Reserve, 16@17 for Hamburg, and prime Eastern Goshen is selling at 21.

APPLES—There is a good demand for prime ripe Apples, in good condition, at $5 to $6 per bbl, and the market is almost entirely bare.

HAY—Is quiet and unchanged with moderate receipts and a fair demand. Prices remain unchanged at $20 to $25 per ton, as to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, }
Saturday, August 4, 1866. }

CRUDE—The Crude market was again greatly excited to-day, there being considerable inquiry both for present and future delivery, but there was not a solitary transaction, the truthfulness of which we could vouch for. We are cognizant of 15 cents having been offered for a round lot of bulk oil, on the spot, and refused, and we also heard of the same figure having been offered for two thousand barrels to be delivered during next month, which, also, was declined, the seller asking 16c. On the other hand, it is reported 500 bbls had been offered at 20½c, packages included, free on board cars here, without finding takers, and it is said that there was an offer to sell at 14c, to arrive on the first water, which we consider a little "mixed" to say the least. At Oil City, as we learn by private advices, there is great excitement, and prices have advanced to $4,75@5 per bbl.

REFINED—There is no apparent abatement in the demand for bonded oil, on the spot as well as for future delivery, but the market is so excited and unsettled, that operators are apparently afraid to do anything, and especially is this the case with refiners, some of whom are actually afraid to make an offer to sell for fear they might be "picked up." So far as we could learn, there was not a single transaction to-day, though better prices were offered in some cases than could have been obtained yesterday. The following sales were closed on Friday evening and not before reported: 500 for August, at 43; 500 do same month, at 44; 500 for October, at 44; 500 for November, at 45, and 500 for December, at 46—all to be delivered in Philadelphia. As already stated, these sales cannot be taken as fair criterion of the market to-day, as an advance could doubtless have been obtained. On the cars here sales were made yesterday at 37 for October, 38 for November, and 40 for December, and we are cognizant of an offer to sell to-day at 42 for January. There is little or no demand for free oil, though prices have advanced to correspond with bonded.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil during the past week have been light, and no increase can be expected until there is a rise in the river. Jas. Wilkins received 247 bbls, and Fisher & Bro. 263, making a total of 510 bbls.

Receipts for the week..........6123
Receipts last week..........8315
Receipts since Jan. 1..........528,542

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

It is reported this afternoon on the street that the quotation of 71½'s for 5-20s through the cable, should have been at Frankfort, and that the price at London is 68½ to 69. We have no direct telegrams and give this information for what it is worth. It is true, however, that some foreign bankers were buying bonds, which looks as if there might be something in it.

The money market is very easy at 4@5 per cent. on call loans with only a moderate demand; prime discounts are 5@6½ per cent.

The gold market rallied to 147¾, and then fell off to 147⅜ at the close. The two extremes of the day were 146¾ and 148. The market for exchange is dull and unsettled.

The stock market closed up firmly in the Long room at about the quotations reported in our earlier editions. There was a slight rally in some cases from the lowest point of the morning. The Government securities were in moderate request, and there was more firmness to the market; 1881 coupons, 109@[illegible]; 5-20 coupons gold, at [illegible] for 1862, and 108@108⅛ for 1864 and 1865, 10-40 coupons, 99@99⅛; 7-30 notes, 104@104⅛. The following quotations were made on the street this afternoon for Petroleum and money stocks: Bennehoff Run, [illegible]; United States, [illegible]; Consolidated Gregory, 19,25@19,75; New York, 135@140; Gunnell, [illegible]; Smith and Parmlee, [illegible]; Downieville, [illegible].

Total imports during the week, $5,163,514.

The Post's money article says: The gold market declined to this morning. Notwithstanding coin is scarce for delivery, loans are being made at 1-32@1-34 in favor of the lender. Money continues superabundant, and the stock exchange [illegible]. There is no change in discounts. The stock market opened steady and rather dull. Government securities were firmer at [illegible].
